SECRET ROMANCE

Selma the Mexican Fiend & Fly-by the Wingnut have been having secret rendezvous for over eight weeks! Photos recently surfaced of their New Year's vacation in Los Angeles.

This past weekend, Selma was spotted shopping at the local ghetto mall. One shopkeeper said she was "hard to please and plumper than I expected her to be". Selma is known for her bountiful curves but could her recent weight gain be something more than love handles? A baby fiend?

LOOSE IN NEW YORK CITY!

Hortensia the Mexican Fiend is causing havoc! No one is even quite sure why she is in NYC in the first place! Rumours are rampant of her "angry outbursts" but we know what Hortensia would say: "No photos, no proof"!

However, the destruction of F.A.O. Schwartz's plush toy department has Hortensia's mark all over it! Stuffing and plastic eyeballs littered the floor of NYC's famous toy store and witnesses say a "loud, wiggly, little purple thing" was carried away by store security.

First Published Photos of Mystery Fiend!

Barrel Roll the Wingnut has a new lady love, Elly the Alien and LF Tabloid has the first photos of the foreign fiend.

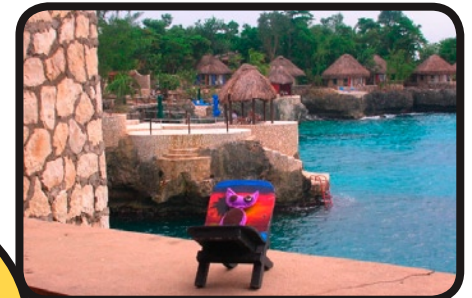

Originally from Europe, Elly has nestled into a new romance. But what do we know about this alien creature? A close friend says she likes "tea with milk, fish and chips, and pie fights". Given the PDA, she can add Barrel Roll to her list of likes.
